

Develop an understanding of legal systems, theories and processes to deliver dependable, thorough, and influential policy analysis.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Unique international and interdisciplinary 'law meets practice' approach
- Tailor your curriculum: 30 ECTS (core courses) + 108 ECTS (major requirements) + 24 ECTS (major electives) + 18 ECTS (free electives). Law courses take up between 84 and 106 ECTS, depending on your choices.
- High-profile internship opportunities
- Small, interactive classes with systematic practical skills training embedded (incl. Capstone project)
- Fall & Spring intakes

CAREER PROSPECTS

- International organisations, diplomacy, public affairs, lobby organisations
- Private sector, NGOs, think tanks
- Research

WHAT SETS US APART

Personalised • Career focused
Connected and interactive • Innovative
International • Diverse • Interdisciplinary
Continuous assessment

“ The BA in International and European Law at the BSoG has thoroughly prepared me for my current master's studies in public international law. I have entered my studies with up-to-date knowledge of this field, and the important skills to fully grasp its evolving dynamic. As a result, I am able to confidently contribute to the academic discourse around me and expand on my own research in this field. ”

- Catherine Gregoire

Internships

Want a taste of the real world?
Gain experience in a professional environment with one of our partners in Brussels.

Our students have interned at:

- Carnegie Europe
- Laffineur Law Firm
- Schuman European Affairs

Study abroad

Go global! Take a semester or a summer programme with one of our international partners.

About our school

The Brussels School of Governance is an alliance between the Institute for European Studies (VUB) and Vesalius College. This BA in International and European Law is a programme of which the degree will be awarded by Vesalius College.

Who can apply?

All students who:

- Are particularly interested in exploring international and European law issues without necessarily aiming to pursue a career as a practising lawyer.
- Prefer small class groups in which they are able to express themselves.

Requirements:

- A diploma from secondary education
- English language proficiency

Apply
here!

What will you study?

ACADEMIC
CORE: 30 ECTS

Intercultural Communication
Introduction to Academic Writing and Critical Thinking
Global Ethics
Leadership and Personal Development
Intermediate Qualitative Research Methods

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS: 108 ECTS

Introduction to Economics
Global Politics
Rhetoric
Communication Ethics and Law
Introduction to International Legal Theory and History
Introduction to International and European Law
Public International law
EU Constitutional Law
EU Law of the Internal Market
Human Rights
Sustainable Development Law
Legal Aspects of Migration
Business Law
International Trade Law
Legal Analysis, Research and Writing
BA Thesis in International and European Law – Seminar I (research methods, research question and outline)
BA Thesis in International and European Law – Seminar II (writing)
Capstone in International and European Law

MAJOR
ELECTIVES:
24 ECTS

This programme offers a broad range of elective courses, including (international) criminal law, IT (Information Technology) and IP (Intellectual Property) law, Advanced Business Law and Comparative Constitutional Law.

FREE
ELECTIVES:
18 ECTS

Students also choose three electives from any of the Bachelor-level courses offered by our School.

Intake deadlines

	FALL	SPRING
EU citizens	30 June	30 November
Non-EU citizens	30 April	31 October

Get in touch!

Chat with our students

Book an appointment

