Solid theoretical base and practical skillset to be prepared for today’s global legal challenges

HIGHLIGHTS
- Established in 1971 - one of the most esteemed of its kind
- Versatile training, covering the roles of legal advisor, policy maker, negotiator, data or sustainability consultant, human rights defender, and researcher
- Curriculum features central themes such as regulation of the economy, foundations of the EU, its judicial protection and free competition protection scheme
- It also addresses three cross-cutting challenges: sustainability, social inclusiveness and human rights, and digitalisation
- Small class size - high interaction
- 1300+ alumni of 108 nationalities

CAREER PROSPECTS
- International law firms, in-house counsel
- International organisations, governments and embassies
- Companies and NGOs consultancy
- (PhD) research

WHAT SETS US APART
- Personalised • Career focused
- Connected and interactive • Innovative
- International • Diverse • Interdisciplinary

“This LLM offers theoretical and practical insights into international and European law from both practitioners and academics alike. Expect to be challenged from day one, but also to reap the rewards that this LLM offers. Such rewards include the opportunity to make both life-long friends and contacts with those working in the field.”

Alison O’ Riordan, LLM alumna (2021)
an ideal setting for constant, intensive interactions across multiple cultural boundaries “…” this programme can be considered as a ‘best practice’ in international perspective “…” a PILC degree always opens the first door “…” graduates are well positioned to enter international law firms and organisations

May 2016 accreditation report by the Flemish educational authorities

www.brussels-school.be/education