This LLM offers theoretical and practical insights into European and International law from both practitioners and academics alike. It is academically stimulating and acts as a solid basis for those who wish to pursue a career in these areas of law, especially those who dream of a career within the European institutions. Expect to be challenged from day one, but also to reap the rewards that this LLM offers. Such rewards include the opportunity to make both life-long friends and contacts with VJQUGY QTM KPIK PVJGGNF.

- Alison O’ Riordan, LLM alumna (2021)
What can you study?

After a solid set of 8 core courses (30 credits) on EU institutional law and judicial protection, EU external relations law, EU economic law, public international and comparative law, human rights and competition law, students can choose to focus on various specialisation options (12 credits). Throughout the programme, you develop your own research topic by means of a Master's thesis (18 credits).

PUBLIC LAW OPTION
- Case Study on Public International/EU law
- EU Environmental Law in an International Context
- International and European Criminal Law

BUSINESS LAW OPTION
- Case Study on European Competition Law
- European and International Private Law
- International and European Taxation

DATA LAW OPTION
- International and European Data Protection Law
- Data Policies in the European Union
- Case Study on Global Privacy and Data Protection

What does it cost?

For updated tuition fees and study costs please check our website.

The programme offers a limited number of scholarships that take the form of a partial tuition fee waiver.

Who can apply?

To qualify for admission you need to have:
- a law degree (J.D., LLM or equivalent) that entitles you to practise law in your country of origin
- excellent academic results and references
- RTQXGPRTKGPE[KP*PINKU]

Students are selected on the basis of their related experience.

About our school

The Brussels School of Governance is an alliance between the Institute for European Studies (VUB) and Vesallus College. This LLM in International and European Law is a programme of which the degree will be awarded by the Vrije Universiteit Brussel.

an ideal setting for constant, intensive interactions across multiple cultural boundaries’...this programme can be considered as a ‘best practice’ in international perspective’...a PILC degree always

www.brussels-school.be/ education